

Charles and Constance SCHMID LAND PRESERVE and RIVERLINK TRAIL

A TRAIL CONNECTING THE SHEEPSCOT & DAMARISCOTTA RIVERS

Overview of Schmid Preserve: Most of the 766-acre Preserve was a gift from Charles & Constance Schmid to the Town of Edgecomb in 1979. It is managed by an Advisory Board that holds monthly public meetings. Maintenance and improvements are volunteer efforts of residents of Edgecomb and nearby towns. Donations are both welcome and necessary to ensure continuing success. For more information, please call the Edgecomb town office at 207-882-7018, or visit www.edgecomb.org

Overview of Riverlink trail: Established in 2003, Riverlink is a recreational trail, wildlife corridor, and greenway that connects the Sheepscot and Damariscotta rivers. The Riverlink trail is a backcountry trail of moderate difficulty, which crosses a network of public and private land. The total length of the Riverlink trail is approximately 7.0 miles.
