

Stay FOR A LIFETIME!

RETREAT to a lifestyle off the beaten path, yet convenient to Maine's thriving hubs of business and recreation.

GROW your business, family, and dreams surrounded by a supportive community.

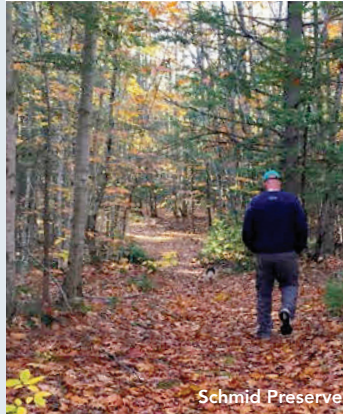

THRIVE in our vibrant educational community at the award-winning Edgcomb Eddy School or the private Center for Teaching and Learning.

EXPERIENCE the majestic outdoors at one of our many nature preserves, scenic waterways, or in your own quiet back yard.

GET INVOLVED, find fellowship in our community churches and local organizations, make a difference.

Edgcomb Community Solar Farm Association

Schmid Preserve

Blue Tin Farm

Henhouse Sugaring Co.

Edgcomb Potters

Edgcomb Eddy Elementary

Kayaking the Sheepscot River

WE'RE CLOSER THAN YOU THINK...

Boothbay Harbor	10 min	Bar Harbor	3 hr
Freeport	30 min	Boston	3 hr
Camden/Portland	45 min	Quebec	4 hr

EDGECOMB.ORG

COME FOR A while...

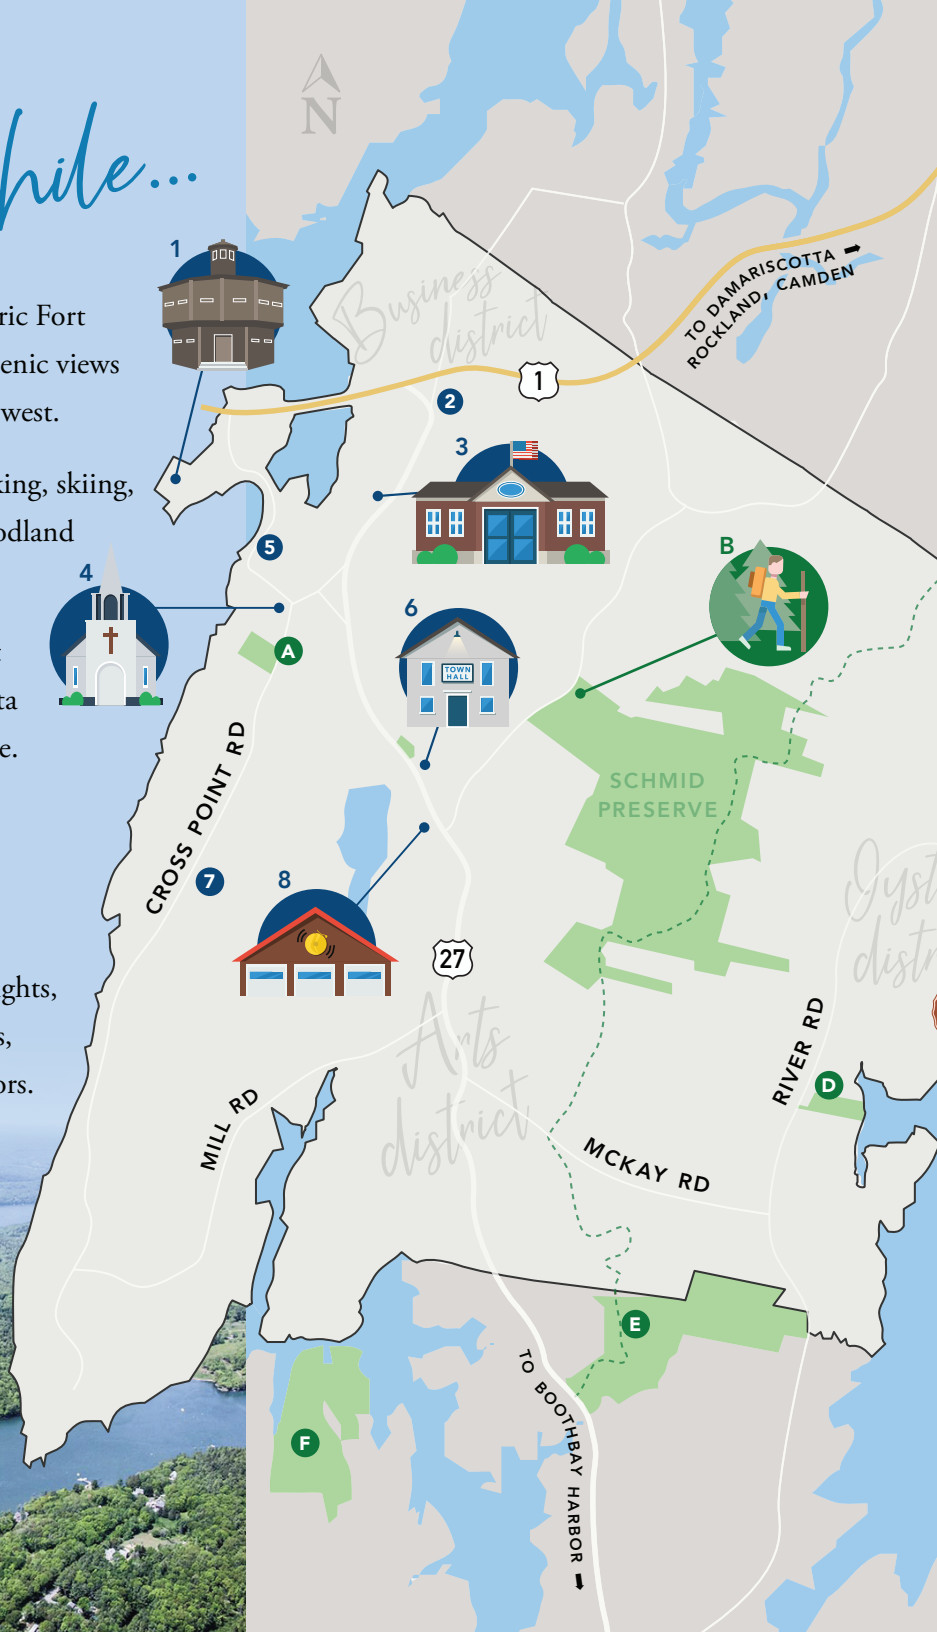

PICNIC on the grounds of historic Fort Edgecomb (1809), with its scenic views of the Sheepscot River to the west.

EXPLORE nature by hiking, biking, skiing, or snowshoeing the quiet woodland trails and nature preserves.

SAVOR some of the world's best oysters from the Damariscotta River on Edgecomb's East side.

DISCOVER unique treasures crafted by our local artisans and craftspeople.

APPRECIATE peaceful starlit nights, clean salt air, open woodlands, river views, and good neighbors.

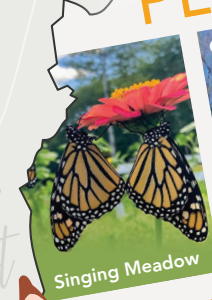

PUBLIC & HISTORIC BUILDINGS

Maps & further details at edgecomb.org

1. Fort Edgecomb Historic Site
2. United States Postal Service
3. Edgecomb Eddy Elementary School
4. Edgecomb Community Church
5. Marie Antoinette House (1774)
6. Town Hall (1794)
7. John Moore House (1741)
8. Fire Department

PLACES TO Visit

"The best thing about Edgecomb is what it doesn't have!"
—TRIP ADVISOR

NATURE PRESERVES & HIKING TRAILS

Learn more at mainetrailfinder.com

- A. Singing Meadow Preserve
- B. Schmid Land Preserve
- C. Dodge Point Public Reserve & Riverlink Trail
- D. Colby Wildlife Preserve
- E. Zak Preserve
- F. Oven's Mouth Preserve