

EDGECOMB ORDINANCE REVIEW COMMITTEE
MINUTES, JANUARY 5, 2023

Present: Chair Rebecca Graham, Barry Hathorne, David Nutt and Skip White and CEO George Chase

1. Call to Order

Chair Rebecca Graham called the meeting to order at 5:35 p.m.

2. Approval of Minutes

David Nutt moved to accept the minutes of May 19, 2022. Vote 3-0-1 (White abstained).

3. Coastal Waters Ordinance – Terry Stockwell and Corning Townsend

Terry Stockwell, Harbormaster, presented an amended version of the Coastal Waters Ordinance. David Nutt asked that the draft be forwarded to Emily Rabbe, planner at Lincoln County Regional Planning Commission. Stockwell reviewed the changes which included a change to definitions, a clarification of the Harbormaster's authority, riparian owners' priority rights, included deeded right of way owner on the application, deleted mooring fees which are set by selectmen, use of registration fees, cancellation of registrations if not used, and establishing a waiting list, and the allotment of 90% of moorings to residential owners with one-third designated for the Sheepscot Village.

The ordinance will be amended and a draft will be sent to the members by the secretary.

4. Other Business

The budget for the next fiscal year was discussed and it was decided that $6,000 would be requested to cover the cost of manuals and training and for extra work on the Comprehensive Plan.

5. Adjournment

Skip White moved to adjourn the meeting at 7:38 p.m. Vote 4-0-0.
